NOTES OF THE TURF.

H. T. Moore, who is patrol judge at Ingleside is a son of the famous old-time Kentucky turfman, Capt. T. G. Moore.

A hundred or more horses are still quartered at Latonia, and quite a number of them will remain there all winter. Secretary Hopper will keep the track in good condition so that the owners will have a chance to work their yearlings when the weather permits.

At Washington last Thursday the stewards fined jockey Simms $200 and suspended him for the meeting for striking the owner of Tremargo in the face. Simms rode the horse, after having asked to be excused on the ground that Tremargo was sore and unfit to run, the judges refusing his request and forcing him to ride. Meeting Menges, the owner, directly after dismounting he committed the offense that was so severely punished. The case was referred to the Jockey Club.

Winner—B. c. by Chesterfield—Jennie D. Start fair. Won handily. Rio Chico got off well, had a clear track and was best in the going. Sam McKeever was suited by the track, but was cut off and unlucky. Ocorona ran a good, game race and likes a route. Bonibel was not suited by the going. Stamina might have done better with a stronger rider. Crossmolina dislikes mud.

Rio Chico, place, 8 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Sam McKeever, place, 4 to 5. Ocorona, show, even.

Winner—B. c. by Rossington—Marjory. Start fair. Won easily. Marplot was much the best and was finely handled. Imperious was at home in the soft going but was weakly ridden. He is improving. Inverary II. ran his race. Daisy F. was short and is best on a fast track. The others were outclassed.

Marplot, place, 4 to 5. Imperious, place, 3 to 1; show, 6 to 5. Inverary II., show, 8 to 5.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The colt Leiter that won at Ingleside last Thursday is the first of Piccolo's get to win. Piccolo was a highly bred imported horse that a few years back ran many good races over the Chicago tracks. Hayden & Walters took him to California and won over the old Bay District track in 1894. By Petrarch—Lady Grace, he might prove a valuable sire if given a fair chance.

A horse very famous in his day died recently at the home of his owner, Oden Bowie, Jr., Col. of Maryland. This was the bay gelding, Crickmore, by Catesby—Belle Meade, a horse of high class, that more than once defeated the mighty Hindoo. He died on the farm where he was bred.

Mike Daly has arrived in San Francisco with a carload of horses that included St. Callatine and Bellicoso, the pair being shipped to their California owners by Sam Hildreth.

Inadvertently the address of E. S. Gardner, Jr. of the Avondale stud farm was given as Saundersville, "Kentucky," last Saturday. It should have read Tennessee.

The recent Latonia meeting is reported to have resulted in a net loss of $15,000 which fell upon the syndicate betting ring that guaranteed the purses.

Burns & Waterhouse have a stable of twenty-five horses at Ingleside, while Ben Timmons is handling thirty yearlings at the Oakland track.

It is reported that James McLaughlin will take his horses to San Francisco after the close of racing at Washington.

The Oakland track authorities will hereafter require owners to pay jockeys before sending their horses to the post.

Michael Reynolds, St. Louis, Mo.—One room there. DAILY RACING FORM is one day old on arrival.

LEXINGTON POOLING.

A GREAT FALL SALE.

Beginning Monday morning, November 28, and continuing until 400 or more are disposed of, there will be conducted at Lexington, Ky., a sale of one of the grandest collections of thoroughbred horses ever inaugurated in this country.

The catalogue embraces 150 yearlings—not the leavings of earlier sales, but valuable prospects, many of them being sisters and brothers to some of America's greatest stake horses.

The stallions to be sold are such as Lissak, the sensational two-year-old and a Derby winner at three; Buck Massie, a richly bred son of the mighty Hanover and a peerless racehorse; Spokane, a Derby winner; Forester, Frontino and others.

The horses in training include The Devil, J. H. C., Kittie B., Joe Clark, Monk Wayman, Air Blast, April's Lady, Uncle Simon and many other good winners, as well as a valuable lot of maidens that can win.

Among the brood mares to be sold is the dam of Pink Coat, winner of the American Derby and other stakes; also the dams of Hueneme, Tom Cromwell, Daily Racing Form, The Princess, Jack Star, Star Beam, Virgie Dixon and more than 100 other good winners.

Catalogues giving detailed descriptions can be obtained by addressing Woodard & Shanklin, Lexington, Ky., under whose management this grand sale will be conducted.

INGLESIDE FORM.

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., November 22.—The form of Wednesday's Ingleside fields is:
First Race—Gauntlet, Los Medanos, Casdale.
Second Race—Pongo, Sokombeo, Morabella.
Third Race—Benamela, Bliss Rucker, Doremus.

Start straggling. Won driving. It was a lucky win. Judge Stouffer ran an honest race, but Lode Star was best and would have won in another stride. He was jostled and unlucky, but came very fast in the last furlong. Lady Britannic liked the going and ran to her mark. Dolores was badly ridden. It was too far for Little Alarm.

Judge Stouffer, place, 4 to 5. Lode Star, place, even; show, 1 to 2. Lady Britannic, show, even.
